Jed by Daryl Austin (2011)

An exhibition titled nVisage will feature a range of different approaches to contemporary portraiture. A portrait is both an act of self-reflection and a study of others, bringing together the artist's skill and style and the subject's character and being.

The group exhibition will include work by established artists such as Daryl Austin, Deidre But Husaim, Sophie Hann, Chelsea Lehmann, Jess Mara, Brigid Noone, Mary-Jean Richardson, Paul W Ruiz, Deborah Trusson and Lucy Turnbull. nVisage is on at the Adelaide Central Gallery, Norwood, until February 18.
